Good Afternoon Counselor,

Many Thanks for your courtesy.

I was just retained.

I will be making a motion to reopen the case and vacate the judgment, and file an answer nunc pro tunc.

Please advise regarding your position regarding the motion.

While settlement is always an option, and something which should always be discussed, my client would also like to have the opportunity to be heard on the merits.

Many Thanks,

Respectfully,

Aleksander B. Milch, Esq.

Dear Mr. Milch,

We note that you filed an appearance in this action but have taken no action. Our client is amenable to settling the matter, but, as you would expect, since we already have a judgment against your client, the ball is in your court to make an offer. We have information subpoenas and restraining notices ready to go. If your client is going to look for a significant discount off the judgment, we'll need to see financials – bank statements for the past year, tax returns for the past three years, and a schedule of assets.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Shan (Jessica) Chen
